

The Truth about Works and Grace!

So here I was trying to get the right info. I will be honest and I know most people hate honesty when it comes to the Bible because we all want a smooth message. The truth is I have thought of taking down my websites and stopping my support for the Christian orphans I take care of. I let my trailer fall apart and now I am doing the same with my car. I don't have money for repairs, food, gas, and the ministries I run. While I get occasional donations for the orphans, I have received less than $200.00 in donations in 11 years to the ministries I run. None of these donations have ever come through the internet not paypal money gram only cash from two church members and that is it. Right now, I am doing two things: I am repenting of my sins to God and I am working late because I have been a bad steward of both time and money. God has been warning me with the sentence of hell that I need to get my act together and I have not. I have been buying food and gas and that is wrong. I stay up at night to work in the Bible but my time has not been spent well. Today I spent less than four hours in the Bible and that is wrong. I am a Bible authority and I should know it inside and out but with the way I am spending my time I have not. I would like to start spending 6-8 hours a day in the Bible though I really don't know if I can because I begin to lose my concentration. If God does according to his Word in the Bible this world ought to end real soon. If he breaks his Word we have about six more years of tribulation. Here is the deal. If enough people repent God will spare this world of tribulation. He promises us the following.

(2Ch 7:14) If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

(Jer 18:8) If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

(Jer 5:1) Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it.

(Mal 4:5) Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:

(Mal 4:6) And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

I also quoted the verses from Malachi because they refer to our time. In Jesus' day the Elijah figure was John the Baptist. In the end days it is God the Father paving the way for his Son's return. See for Jesus to return it takes God the Father to clear a "landing strip" so to speak for his Son to return in all his glory. I know myself I am just a worm, but more than just a worm because God appointed me as a watchman. God did so in a dream several years back. In the dream the words Ezekiel 33:3 appeared in flaming red then flaming blue. I will include that verse below. As for me I know I am responsible to warn people even though no one ever comes to this site or any of my sites for that matter. If I do get a visitor they click and click away as quickly as time allows. There is a fear of my sites because I share the truth. That and if you were looking for fancy flash, scrolling menu bars, fancy buttons, advertisements and a 1-800 number or the words spoken in soft tones that you are special and you are saved. Well let's get back to the following verse.

(Eze 33:3) If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

See if I lie to you and serve up a smooth gospel telling you are free from sin and you can just go on doing whatever the hell you want I will get donations but I will serve in hell for eternity. I know for a fact I have been a terrible steward of my time and my money. Even now in this reckless life of Christianity I claim to be I have been a very evil sinner. I do not deserve heaven but rather eternal damnation. As it stands I have been granted a second chance but I am blowing it. I knew this sermon was supposed to have been written last night which was September 23rd 2018 and now it is a day later and I still don't have it done. I have to work into the wee hours of the night, it is 11:03 pm right now and if I am not done by morning and this is not posted I go to hell for eternity. This is the reality of serving God.

(Jas 2:10) For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

If I do a good job and get this done not only do I regain my soul but I also will receive God's promise. See I know that:

(Isa 64:6) But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

See we can do a "works" based relationship or even a "grace" based relationship and spend eternity in hell.

(Jas 2:18) Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

(Jas 2:20) But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

(Jas 2:26) For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

(Eph 2:8) For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

(Eph 2:9) Not of works, lest any man should boast.

(Eph 2:10) For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

I hope these verses are clear enough to you. A works alone salvation does not lead to heaven. It takes things like love not pride.

(Pro 16:18) Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

Pride is like cancer and it cancels out all good works, or a weak love for humanity or a lukewarm love of God. Pride cancels the mercy and forgiveness that God once gave us. See nothing with God is a done deal. We in our pride tend to think on such and such date so many years ago I got saved. It doesn't work that way because we can lose our salvation and for that reason I never get tithes even though this ministry costs over $70.00 a month to run not including my orphans. It is my love that keeps this ministry running but my shortcomings which are sending me to hell. I am on my way right now and I still have a few more hours though I may have to stay up all night to get it done. What do I say then, "God I don't trust you are right and I'll just sleep because I'm tired and it will all be okay?" NO!!!

(1Co 13:1) Though I speake with the tongues of men and Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding brasse, or a tinkling cymbal.

(1Co 13:2) And though I had the gift of prophecie, and knewe all secrets and all knowledge, yea, if I had all faith, so that I could remooue mountaines and had not loue, I were nothing.

(1Co 13:3) And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

In the above verses I quoted from the Geneva Bible because it uses the word loue or LOVE. We can lose God's love as I have done often in my life. Truth is sometimes I work better under pressure because then you can realize that it takes a whole lot of love to enter heaven and it can't be worldly based either. Even our love has to be coupled with godly fear and in keeping God's commands. Right now, I am commanded to write. God gave me my hands and eyes back plus rescued me from insanity and prison.

(Exo 20:6) And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

(Deu 5:10) And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

(Joh 14:15) If ye love me, keep my commandments.

(Joh 14:23) Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

(Php 2:12) Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

There are three verses I have found so far. Two are in the New Testament and one is in Proverbs. In all simplicity it states the following:

(Pro 10:12) Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins.

It is like love is a clothing over a naked shamed wicked human soul. While I remember this is the truth I also recall verses like the following:

(Psa 7:2) Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

If you think my salvation is easy think again. I am a man that spent 28 years lost in the word as a fool or as the Bible calls me atheist.

(Psa 53:1) To the chief Musician upon Mahalath, Maschil, A Psalm of David. The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.

This was the old me battling God wanting more and doing less. I was co-dependent on women and lived in sexual sins and a terribly mismanaged life of folly. What I did was a sin worthy of hell.

(1Co 6:9) Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, (1Co 6:10) Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

(1Co 6:11) And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

In verse 11 it says “ye are washed.” I did what I did not knowing better though I admit others tried to warn me but I did what I did in disobedience.

(Pro 16:25) There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

God wanted us to know that this is important so he repeats himself. I thought when I first read the Bible God could not keep track of the verses and that he made a mistake.

(Pro 14:12) There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

What we so often do in our own eyes is an abomination in God’s eyes. People did warn me about hell. People warned me that disbelief in God would send me to hell. At one point I repented and decided to believe in God but it was a copout. I was doing salvation in my own eyes.

I was also thinking about churches and the many doctrinal differences and what makes a church decide what to do. All churches have to have a motive and unless they are supported by the illuminati they probably won't get far. What matters though is that a church can have doctrine that effects salvation and with what they teach they can send men to hell by the truckloads though the pastor will have the greater damnation. I believe all of them know what they are doing. I went to these such churches and a friend warned them so that they don't have an excuse.

With the websites I created I made them like an online church. I do research and I write on it. It is my form of informing people what is right and what is wrong and also my love offering to God. I know though I must be onto something since I get so little traffic to my sites. Also, with the speed people click and click away I must be telling the truth because people hate my sites that much. While I fund the entire sites on a shoestring budget I get nothing and as a result wear old dirty clothes because I can't afford new clothing or the money to frequently do my laundry. I admit my appearance has been bad because I can't afford new razors when they wear out or haircuts. That is the cost I pay to serve God. Now I'm ready to throw the entire thing in the trash because I wasted my time.

I wanted to mention a little about works. Could this mean without labor we enter into God's work? This is going to be a just God that is right and fair. He judges us according to our works.

(Heb 4:11) Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

I did not realize the reality of this verse until I just got into it. I labor unto rest. Yes, if I do sleep tonight it will be less and I may end up tired all day tomorrow. Unbelief however will send me to hell. This is so important and totally preached against. I know I am right and the masses are preaching to send people lies and keep them going to hell!! It's all for a smooth message so that people get more money in tithes.

(1Pe 1:17) And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear:

This verse must have to stand out, but we water down the truth and write modern Bibles so the language doesn't sound so harsh. It is the Father judging without respect of persons according to every man's work.

(Rev 22:12) And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

There are a whole lot more verses on works than grace and mercy. I am listening for it and hearing it all the time. I am seeing a theme that is reoccurring all over the Bible. Pastors are purposely trying to see that we fall and lose our salvation. They know a grace-based gospel produces tithes and honoring God does not. They are trading our souls for cash and it makes me angry!

(Rev 20:12) And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

(Rev 20:13) And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

People believe pastors and ministers over someone who knows the Bible because they are the ones teaching that salvation is not works based. They even go a step further discouraging works. All I've ever heard is that "salvation is a free gift" and you don't have to do a thing to get into heaven. These are lies that started from Satan and are in all theology schools I know of. It is like every single organized religion is missing a major factor that will get you kicked out of heaven. They even tell us we have to go to church, but look the exact is true. Christians were being kicked out of Synagogues during Jesus' time on earth. Even Jesus created his own church because the works of Bible leaders were lies and they were teaching doctrines that would get people kicked out of heaven. What many churches are saying are salvation issues the truth is they are idols. I think even the Sabbath can become an idol. For an example every day can be a Sabbath and we can use these days, all days, to study God's Word and do works of righteousness. I don't have to be told what day is Sabbath because as an example tomorrow is Sabbath, Saturday the 29th isn't yet October 1st, 2018 is and even the Jews are not adhering to this but I read it in Leviticus 23. I am sorry but I am very angry at churches right now. The SDA church strongly adheres to each Saturday as Sabbath, but teaches Michael is Jesus which is a salvation issue and isn't true. I'm at a point now where I just need to go through the NT at least one more time to get all the facts in place.

After that it will mostly be for memorization and leisure. The OT is massive and I need to hit it more. Right now, I'm in 1 Peter and will try and get through 2 Peter and while I did I still fell short because I know in other areas I wasted time and money.

I'm finding the Bible says more about works than grace and mercy.

(Heb 6:12) That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

Slothfulness is another word for laziness yet so many people are not working but living off the dole. Even if you are working, I don't because I am mentally disabled and even with my medications my motor skills are greatly reduced. Whether you work, and if you don't you have a greater responsibility, is that you have to serve God.

(Deu 11:28) And a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known.

(Jos 24:15) And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

I am telling you TV is a god! Choose your master wisely. You can come off the line as a fool if you don't obey God with time and with money. Serving God thinking well if I pray for my football team to win is not serving God.

(Pro 15:8) The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

(Pro 28:9) He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.

(Psa 109:7) When he shall be judged, let him be condemned: and let his prayer become sin.

I sat in a car and even though I read the Bible when I could tonight my prayer became an abomination. I was mad at God but then I didn't realize the reason God didn't answer my prayer was because of my disobedience. So many times, in church we hear "God is good because God is good because God is good...." God is not good. God has a job so terrible that he is stuck with his own rules. God has to judge and he cannot respect one person over the other because "he loves them more." It doesn't even matter! God's guidelines are laid out in 82 books. One is the book of Enoch, Laodiceans, and the Apocrypha not to dis-include a lot of other works we should be reading. I FAILED MISERABLY!!! When I had the time and the end was not so close I dishonored God by not reading more. I failed with my books when God said to write. I am in deep trouble right now because when this grace period is coming it could be damnation instead. I failed in such a big way and right now it's me and this computer working together throughout the night. I am on page 7 which is not bad considering I started around 10:30 pm September 25th, 2018 when I started on the 24th. Right now, it is 12:33 am which leaves me six hours to finish. I know I will make it because I can write up to 16 pages a day though I know I will be done long before that.

(Isa 45:19) I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

See God laid it all out for us and for that reason I have spent countless hours in Isaiah. I know in my life I can see the finish line. The race is almost won but I have to be right with God. I have to do the best I can and that includes keeping God's commandments. You will find the truth if you look, but that ain't going to happen in front of the TV. It is all there in the Bible but you have to take a look. That means deep studies. I am not a smart person but I outworked my talents and could produce fruit if I just get the work done and done right. There is no room for error and no room for tired. The enemy is out there and I am in a fox hole and I have to pay attention to what is right and to defeat what is wrong.

The word "wrought" is your works. And how many say that works are foolish or not required. This explains it right here you will not receive your full reward. Wrought is like works but an older word. Let's see what other versions say.

NLT

Watch out that you do not lose what we[e] have worked so hard to achieve. Be diligent so that you receive your full reward.

I think the KJV is better.

NIV

Watch out that you do not lose what we[a] have worked for, but that you may be rewarded fully.

ESV

Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we[a] have worked for, but may win a full reward.

Do you see the manipulation of the wording? It's like you can have this full reward if you work for it but that's okay you don't really need it. I think a lot of folks just don't get this. When you are the pastor of a church you have a huge responsibility as do I but in a different way. I have to get my words right too knowing one day my words and works will be displayed before the world. Let us take another look at some lesser known verses on works.

(Tit 3:5) Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

(Tit 3:6) Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

(Tit 3:7) That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

(Tit 3:8) This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

(Tit 3:14) And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

What one may not realize is that you are not going to get your Mercedes. In fact, unless you are careful to maintain good works you may not get into heaven. If you do get to heaven you can lose your reward. While I am getting this article finished I can see the light at the end. I have one or two generic food drive Cokes in the refrigerator so if I start getting tired I have a source of caffeine. You may not realize but there is a place for beginner Christians. Let me put it this way, the works you don't do now, that will be your job in heaven.

(Isa 65:22) They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

Someone here is the elect and they are enjoying who's works? There are 144,000 elect but there is also an election. I believe and I can't prove it that those martyred and the saints won't be working but rather being worked for.

(Isa 61:5) And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.

(Isa 61:6) But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

Strangers are not Christians. They are flunkies that almost made the cut but their works were not enough. What they did, did not meet God's standards and the Bible in Isaiah 61:6 refers to them as Gentiles. See I totally believe there are ghetto's in heaven. Does this sound fair? Well I tell you what when you are in your favorite church and God up front giving the sermon you may not be laughing in holy laughter but rather in reverent fear. See God can take all your riches you worked a lifetime to save and give them to someone else that is better. Below I want to include one of my favorite verses and another verse to back it.

(Gal 6:7) Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

(Job 4:8) Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

The change that we put into the piggy bank is the change we get out. You can put up ten thousand Glory Star satellite dishes but if you offend one person you can lose your whole reward and you might even fall so far short of God's glory you miss out on heaven. I've seen this happen and this couple was so rude to my friend it affected her for years. In the end she quit this church because of this couple's hatred and cruelty and others including the head deacon that purposely ruined her trailer which was her only home she had to live in. I've seen two sisters that were on the churches pay role that would not study the Bible with this individual. One of the sisters was so angry at one point she said yelling and stomping "I don't want to talk about Jesus!" My friend ended up studying with the Jehovah's Witnesses who about everyone cuts down because for one they talk about works as a measure of salvation. Now that means that this very article will get cut down and people will say what about the thief on the cross. I am so sick of hearing about him. He was in paradise three days later with Jesus he did however, not have a reward.

(2Co 9:6) But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

(1Co 3:10) According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

(1Co 3:11) For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

(1Co 3:12) Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

(1Co 3:13) Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

(1Co 3:14) If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

(1Co 3:15) If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

In other words, you can build a house just like the three little pigs did. The house of straw and the house of sticks will be burned but the brick house survives the fire. The same goes with our lives. If you try to build up works doing what you feel is right in your eyes, or doing works for your own sweet glory you will lose out. Yes, you can be saved but the Bible says a lot about money and in heaven you will lose your reward. God is a great God and is worthy to be worshipped. In fact, in the coming kingdom which is here on earth, he owns all the central banking systems.

(Hag 2:8) The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.

God will not be cornered or put into a box like so many have "fashionably" done. We say so many great swelling words about God but the truth is he is KING and he won't be won over by "fancy" speech, gold dust falling from the ceiling, "holy laughter" but rather tears of repentance.

One day in the Alabaster house I was doing my normal and writing poems. I know in my heart, not bragging, but these are good poems and had I kept them all I could have penned several more really good poetry books. I say good but they are lousy because no one ever buys them. I have not sold one book in what; the three years I have had them on Amazon's Create Space. It breaks my heart because I have seen pardon the term but "crap" that was in Barn's & Noble labelled "best seller." There is no comparison from what I write to the garbage that doesn't even rhyme at the "big time" bookstore. To top it off I have given mine away for free vowing that God some day reward me. I get nothing I mean absolutely nothing. No one comes to the site <https://www.freebookministry.com/> and when those few ever do they don't read a thing. The site, I think looks good, is not done in DreamWeaver so when people see it they are not wooed and wowed. You know what the heck with people who think appearance is everything!!! I worked hard on that site and if you don't like what you see go somewhere else!!! I paid $55.00 on each of the four copyrights, though not all books got copywritten because I just didn't have the money. I'm sorry if I sound mad as hell but I am sick of appearance being everything!

(1Sa 16:7) But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart.

I don't have Bethel money to make a site look good or even to get it in the search engines. I do however have love and its 1:47 am and I'm still working on this sermon. If it sounds a little rough around the edges know I am not sorry. I need my prayers answered and while many stopped reading I have around ten or more books all together. Some books were lost because I have never been able to buy a backup hard drive. I got burned out along the way and the reason I am working as hard as I can now is because I can't be forgiven of burn out. I don't have an excuse before God's throne. You think I like paying for orphan's food!? I don't have a choice! If I don't take care of them who will. Yes, I receive donations and the people who have given may they receive their full reward. The thing is it is still not enough to take care of the orphans but it does buy them necessities I can't normally purchase. I spend on average 151.00 dollars a month on them and out of a 1097.00 monthly US Marine pension budget it is all I can possibly do. People have starved me. I have eaten bugs in rotten food. My roof is leaking and this winter's rains are on the way. I have to get in a corner to work on the computer. Items in the house have to be carefully placed or they will get wet like my Strongest Strong's that got ruined one winter. I can't make it through this winter so I rely on God. The thing is God is not answering my prayers so as a backup I have to move and right now I don't have the money to move. I think of things like fires that can't seem to be put out because the ground the houses were on had gold. I live in a triangle where the Masonic Temple, Bethel, and the Civic Auditorium sit. This house ain't going to burn because the illuminati's princess the people that run the show aren't going to let their favorite buildings burn up. I'm safe here plus I live in a gated community with cameras and it turns a lot of would-be thieves away. I don't want to move but this trailer won't do it anymore. Ten years ago, when I moved in it was great, but now the sun and storm have damaged it badly. I can't sell book and I guess I have to beg for donations I will never receive not unless I do what every other pastor out there does and sell my soul to the devil. I worked far too hard for that plus I'm not that stupid. I hate the devil enough to where it's 2:05 am and I'm still working. Other people side track and they are known as heroes. I side-track and I am deemed a jerk. I had so many plans for this ministry but another pastor decided he needed to push his one quarter page ministry forward that involved four swords and a shield. He decided I would be poor and go to food banks begging bread for the rest of my life. Every year for the last ten years I vowed not to be poor, but I am still living a 21-year curse and I'm getting very tired of it. Sorry I'm so mad but I'm tired and want to go to bed.

Yes, God is living in this world.

(Psa 74:12) For God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

(Job 19:25) For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:

King James Version

(Job 19:25) For I know that my Redeemer liueth, and that he shall stand at the latter day, vpon the earth:

King James 1611

(Job 19:25) For I am sure, that my Redeemer liueth, and he shall stand the last on the earth.

Geneva Bible

Note the use of capitalization on the word redeemer which is commonly used in ancient Bibles. The King James Bible is a very basic beginner Bible though I admit I use it most because it is what I have owned throughout my years of being a Christian which journey I started in the summer of 1998 when I was first put in jail. I continued daily in that Bible two to four hours a day; note this is the Bible that is most common, and the Strong's Concordance all throughout my prison sentence that finally ended on January 28th 2007. I worked hard over most the years though I admit I fell in and out of sanity, and deep debilitating depression which nearly ended in suicide. Only my strong hatred for Satan, Todd Jessie Garton, and Pastor Brock Dale Bernstein that stole well over $35,000.00 in credit cards which I still haven't recovered from, pushed me to live. I live to one day see God's wrath on these folks and the others who ripped my world apart for the rest of my life. I live to see that one day they will burn in hell and that my works will turn out as gold. Amen...

God is in this world today.

(Joe 2:27) And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

Here God is Elohim or Strong's 430. It is the plural form. God is in the midst of Israel this verse doesn't just refer to Jesus because if it did it would be El or God singular Strong's 410.

(Isa 45:15) Verily^{H403} thou^{H859} art a God^{H410} that hidest thyself,^{H5641} O God^{H430} of Israel,^{H3478} the Saviour.^{H3467}

Only one God hid himself. Jesus did not hide himself. See the first time God appears it appears as Strong's 410. God the Father hides himself this is singular for God. The Son was never hidden. Jesus was pronounced at age 12 in the temple but revealed by God the Father during his baptism at age 30 when his ministry was started.

One of the points I originally started out with was that I don't think the Great Tribulation was ever in God's plans. See I am a little tired as it is 2:38 am and I need sleep really bad. I am however going the extra mile with work and getting this job done. Believe it or not I am seeing God's plans in this whole picture and for me it is beginning to make a lot more sense. I know I am rambling on. Some of you have begun to realize I am angry at a lot of things and I shared those emotions with you. Those of you that made it this far are possibly interested in this sermon, you're scared, perhaps you're waking up to a reality you have never even imagined, or like everyone else you simply hate me. You don't know how much it hurts to tell the truth and get ignored time and time again.

I'm trying to wake you up. I'm trying to let you know how much you love your pastors and your church but hate the man that tries to warn you by telling you a different message that is the truth. So many people of the Bible went through this like Jeremiah, Isaiah, Daniel, Job, and others and I too who have drunk my cup to the dregs. I have not even begun to tell you the "experiences" I have gone through while serving God. I paid more than my fair share of dues and I realize now God isn't angry with me; in fact, God is still right on time and he hasn't lied to me at all.

(Jer 15:18) Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me as a liar, and as waters that fail?

I actually feel like crying right now but I'm too mad to cry right now.

A lot of you have some sort of belief that is a lie that we have pre-tribulation rapture. In other words when things get bad we'll just look up and get taken away. Sorry to let you know but that is another flat out lie. It ain't going to happen. God will come when God will come and if you know enough of the pieces of the puzzle... well enough said!? What you do not realize was up until today the beginning of Sukkot I started to worry about tribulation because why? Failure! God never intended things to be the way they are. Not at all. I am not a righteous man by man's scales. I yell, I curse, I get mad, I lie, and I sin. However, the sins that counted like sexual sins, though I failed at the computer screen many years ago, I have not sinned in that flesh. I have abstained now for well over 20 years and I have reached a point where I just don't care anymore if I ever have sex again. In fact, I can't because I have erectile dysfunction and I'm happy because of it. No one can buy me, but people have used me. Few have actually given. Many have taken some even forcibly. I have been used in my insane states so if I get mad I have reason. Maybe one day if I am in your church I will explain it to you. For now, I will say one thing if I am still right? God may have stopped the Great Tribulation before it even got started and given you a certain grace period to make final amends with God before Christ returns. Just remember God is not good. He doesn't want to be the bad guy and destroy loved ones because they blasphemed God and mocked His holy Word. He wants to love and be loved, but he is tired of lukewarm nothing's, and people playing Christianeeze. Nobody wants to be the bad guy but someone has to do it. I'm going to do one more verse for now well maybe two.

(Hab 1:5) Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

(Isa 46:10) Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

In the above verse taken from Isaiah in other words what God is saying here is that he will do his pleasure and his pleasure is to save people from the Great Tribulation which we are in right now. It began August 21st 2017 with the solar eclipse over America. Its ending date is April 8th 2024 with the next solar eclipse over America. It is 2300 days from Hanukkah 2017 to April 8th 2024. It goes from the feast of lights to darkness over America which stands as a bad omen. God knew this and even though time would have gone on even further till the final end it ends now. Amen and Amen...

(Dan 8:13) Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

(Dan 8:14) And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

Finished at 3:16 am.

(Joh 3:16) For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Google Dale Lee Gordon for most websites I created.

<https://www.dalesbooks.org/>

Sadly, I only was able to buy just one single copy of one of my books. It has printing problems as perhaps others do but I couldn't fix them in time. Pray that my books God will fix all of them and that they won't have printing errors. Books are available in pdf as well for free. Perhaps someone can read my books and leave me a dollar or two donation. They cost me everything but cost you nothing though I would appreciate a small donation so I can get my Geo Metro fixed and repairs on my 2000 Mercury Mountaineer and also a new trailer. It only takes a dollar from a few to build up enough money to survive. I would appreciate it. If you don't want to read my books there are enough sites with all kinds of free information on them. Poem on next page!

There is a Better Way...

God has victory over Satan's hand.

That it might come with pain we don't understand.

Just know in hardship is victory.

While in chains know you are free.

When storms do rise.

God is love and God is wise.

Even Jesus felt the pain.

So understand in the midst of your hurricane.

Jesus was over-burdened when He carried the cross.

To save us all when we were once lost.

And while Jesus was whipped and beaten.

His nails and scars healed the heathen.

God knows the tears we cried.

As we buried loved ones that died.

And though while some give till they can give no more.

God knows your loved one may not have come home from the war.

The pain that lingers turns to victory.

And the God who suffered every eye shall see.

God understands because he's been there as well.

He took the keys from Satan that guarded the gates of hell.

Though we once begged for bread, and once lived in poverty.

There came a day that God owned and he set us all free.

This God came and broke the veil.

Unmasked we see the God and the place where Satan fell.

Amen...
